

GEOSTRATEGIC WORLD OBSERVATORY INC.

5. (cont'd)

1. Any and all researches, studies, analysis and counsels such as may serve in the domains of documentation, counseling and prognostication and provision of forecasting or diagnostic tools.
2. The provision of, and participation in, courses relative to (1) above.
3. The organization and treatment of data and information in all domains and fields.
4. The conception and usage of apparatus and scientific instruments (other than those for medical usage) concerned in, nautical, geodesical, photographic, cinematographical, optical, weighing, measuring, signaling, control systems (inspection and or observation) safety and lifesaving, teaching, recording, transmission and or recording of sounds, images, frequencies, magnetic or optical or digital recording media and systems, calculating machines, data treatment systems including computers, hardware and software.
5. Telecommunications (networks and satellites).
6. All and any commercial and financial operations, purchases of real estate or other goods and or services as deemed fit to be in the interests of the company in the furtherance of it's stated aims or which may aid it's expansion in these or any other fields, including the registration, purchasing, holding of or transference of any patents and other items of intellectual property that may serve the companies purposes.
7. The Company "GEOSTRATEGIC WORLD OBSERVATORY", INC., French translation "OBSERVATOIRE MONDIAL GEOSTRATEGIQUE"INC., may also be deemed fit or necessary by the decision of it's Directors/Administrators purchase services or companies in the furtherance of its aims, whether in the State of Nevada or elsewhere.
8. All data and/or information and/or processes or treated or utilized by the corporation, including all research work undertaken on its behalf or in consultation remains the property of its respective owners whether third parties, etc., whomsoever they may be and whatever the purposes of the data treatment may be, unless specified otherwise by prior written agreement between the parties and the corporation.

